

CHFBC Camp Sponsorship Policy - Revised November 2017

The purpose of the camp fund is to provide an opportunity for children connected to CHFBC to have a Christian camping experience with an evangelical emphasis of winning and instructing young people in the gospel of Jesus Christ.

The following are details you may find useful in regards to the Camp Fund. Those eligible to participate in the camp program are:

- Any child or young person ages 5 – 18, attending or related to a member or adherent at CHFBC.
- A young person who is older than 18 but still in high school in the current calendar year would be included.
- Also those who are over 18 but are deemed “Special Needs” will also be considered
- Approved Christian camps are as follows: AWANA Scholarship Camp, Camp Mini-Yo-We, Camp Widjitiwin, Joy Bible Camp, Teen Ranch, Camp Crossroads, CHFBC Youth Camps and Retreats (such as Jr. High Bedlam, Sr. High Sno Camp, and Sojourn).

Note: Other Christian Camps whose statement of Faith and Purpose reflects an evangelical emphasis of winning and instructing young people in the gospel of Jesus Christ shall be considered. Prior approval is required from the Eldership and the applicant must submit the camp's doctrinal statement to the CHFBC Camp Coordinator.

Sponsorship Details:

- CHFBC shall provide partial funding for individual applicant registration fees for up to 1 week of camping annually.
- The partial funding shall be for ½ of the camping fee to a maximum annual amount as determined by the CHFBC Board as part of the annual budget process (set at $325/ child for 2017 as annual max. for camp or retreats combined)
- The number of participants will be limited by the CHFBC annual budget set for this program.
- In cases where the applicant has a financial hardship, additional funding support may be available over the maximum sponsorship amount. In these cases, the applicant shall request additional support from the Elders Team at their discretion.

The process for application is as follows:

1. Contact the CHFBC Camp Coordinator and submit your child's name for the current year's sponsorship list.
2. Register your child with the approved camp and pay the entire fee.
3. Upon attendance at the camp, provide receipt to the CHFBC Camp Coordinator.
4. CHFBC Camp Coordinator will then initiate the reimbursement of the appropriate amount.
5. In the case of CHFBC Youth Camps and Retreats, sponsorship details will be worked through the Camp Coordinator and Youth leadership.

You are encouraged to take advantage of the opportunity that is provided for the children of CHFBC. Camp experiences are memories that last a lifetime. The Gospel truth put into the hearts of our children in this challenging world will bear fruit by God's power and grace.
